

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION

HONORING MS. JOANNE JACOBY

WHEREAS, Ms. Joanne Jacoby has led an extraordinary life of distinction, volunteerism and civic mindedness, sharing her many talents for decades with the Colts Neck community; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Joanne Jacoby has been an active member of the Colts Neck Reformed Church for the past 53 years, volunteering as a teacher, organist, bell choir member, Bible study participant and lead organizer for the hospitality ministry, including the acclaimed chowder booth at the Colts Neck Fair; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Joanne Jacoby is an active member, past President and Corresponding Secretary, and current Treasurer of the Colts Neck Woman's Club, who together with her husband, John, graciously host the Woman's Club annual picnic in their home; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Joanne Jacoby is an active member of the Colts Neck Seniors Club as well as the Friends of the Library, and has spent many hours volunteering and ensuring the success of many events throughout the years; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Joanne Jacoby, together with her husband, John, established the Jacoby Music Award in 2002 and since then have annually recognized over 20 eighth grade students at Cedar Drive School who significantly participated in area music programs, such as the All Shore Band and the Regional Band.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Thomas Orgo, Mayor of the Township of Colts Neck, along with all members of the Township Committee, do hereby proclaim that December 1, 2016 be known as Ms. Joanne Jacoby Day within the Township of Colts Neck. We share the pride of all Colts Neck residents in honoring Ms. Joanne Jacoby on an extraordinary life well lived and for making a difference within the Colts Neck community.

Thomas Orgo, Mayor
